Anticipated Trends and Dynamics

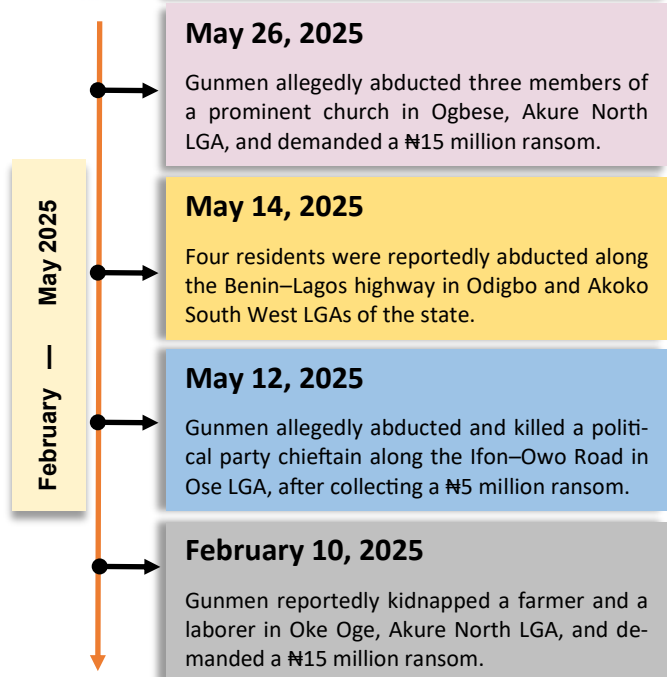

The surge in kidnappings across the state has intensified insecurity, disrupted livelihoods, and constrained mobility. Concentrated along major highways, the trend is likely to escalate if not urgently addressed through coordinated security and socio-economic measures.

Actions Taken to Mitigate the Situation

Security agencies and local vigilantes, including the Amotekun Corps, have stepped up efforts to address the crisis through targeted raids and rescue operations. However, closer collaboration with community leaders is needed to boost surveillance and intelligence gathering.
